

Casavecchia, Rich E

From: Steve Oglesbee [steve@clpc.org]
Sent: Thursday, September 18, 2008 5:08 PM
To: CLPC NewsNET
Subject: CLPC Ike Update September 18

Dear Church Family:

1. Know someone without power still? Please invite them to have dinner with us at church each night at 6:30. We have plenty of food. (Thanks Bill and Mary Baker and our Scouts!).
2. Work teams will dispatch again tomorrow. Meet at 9:30 a.m. to prep. for a 10:00 a.m. (sharp!) departure. Bring work gloves and pack a lunch.
3. The movie afternoon was a big hit! Join us again tomorrow afternoon (Friday) from 2-4 for another family friendly movie. Popcorn is included. Target age: K-5th grade. (Parents may drop off their children.)

Our Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (<http://www.pcusa.org/pda>) preliminary team arrived today. You'll recognize them in the office by their bright blue shirts.

A big thanks to the several of you who pitched in to clean up our church property. It looks great! Also, the two work teams dispatched from the church today were successful. I continue to hear stories of many others rolling up their sleeves and helping one another dig out from the mess.

Again, if you know of a need or have a resource to share, please let Dana Park know (dana@clpc.org).

Thanks!
Steve

P.S. Anyone interested in some pick-up basketball in our gym to blow off some Ike tension? Maybe we could play Friday evening. Let me know.