SUNDAY MORNING The Teaching Hour 10:15 – 11:05 a.m.

Family Foundations      Fellowship Hall

This fall we will explore the concept of becoming Missional Families. How do we collectively and as individual families extend God's love to others, share our faith with others, and serve less fortunate families in our area? We will study the Bible as well as current authors and then will practice being missional with several community service activities. Join us on Sunday Mornings in Fellowship Hall.

Special Topics Class      L106 "Contemporary Issues"

Join us in conversation about "hot topic" issues that affect our families, communities, nation, and the World. We will discuss God's Word and what He calls us to believe, say, and do as the Spirit works in and through us to further His Kingdom.

Each class will stand on its own so participate every Sunday or whenever you can.

Sunday Morning Teaching Hour (continued)

Bible Study for All      L108

During the winter quarter this class will examine stories of biblical characters that exhibit commitment. In various ways they respond to God's claim on their lives. They join themselves to God's mission to bring salvation to the world. By example they challenge us to join God's mission, to nurture the new life God's Spirit provides, to proclaim the wonder of God's design, to step into the unknown trusting God's promise for a future filled with hope. As is also apparent in these stories, commitment to God entails a certain amount of risk. Saying "yes" to God will necessitate our saying "no" to something or someone else.

Our pledge to join God's mission in the world may take us across the street, around the world or anywhere in between. Are you ready to join God's mission, God's adventure?

Singles for Christ      L109

Come and join other 45 + singles in the study of God's covenant as made manifest in communities. The lessons consider the persons God chose to be covenant leaders, the invitations God offered to enter into community, the people's responses to the invitations and the nature of God's new covenant community.
